

The Total Transformation Program is coming to Conejo!

You may have heard James Lehman on the radio and television. He has specialized in working with difficult children for over 30 years and was himself a difficult child at one time. If you are struggling to gain control in your household, this may be the program for you.

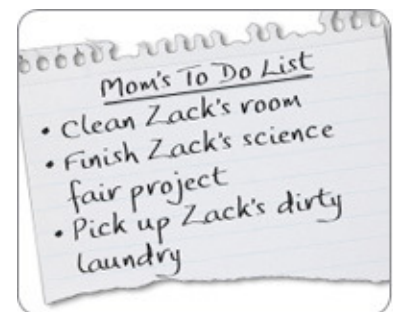

Do you find yourself “walking on eggshells” around your child, trying to avoid saying something that will set him or her off? Have you tried talking, yelling, punishing, pleading, and negotiating—but your child still walks all over you? Are you frustrated and exhausted from arguing constantly? All children misbehave from time to time. But when defiance, hostility and refusal to comply are ongoing, the behavior affects the entire family and requires a more serious intervention. Fortunately, we’ve seen that when parents use the right tools, they can change their child’s problem behavior—quickly and dramatically.

If you are ready to make some serious changes in you family, come join Nicole Vitto, Elementary Counselor, for this 8-day event. This is a Total program, so attendance is suggested on all dates if possible. There is no charge for attending.
